

put your most precious
things in the safest place

because some risks are not worth taking – choose Armormax.

If tragedy struck and you were to lose one of your loved ones, you would never forgive yourself. Especially if you knew you could have done more to protect them. Armormax provides an impenetrable barrier between your family and would-be attackers.

Utilizing the latest in lightweight armouring technology, your luxury vehicle will be able to withstand a level B4 threat (shots fired from a .44 Magnum at point blank range) when protected with Armormax. In addition neither your car's physical appearance nor the handling will be affected.

The choice is simple really – leave your family vulnerable or bulletproof them with Armormax.
